CAMP
23rd – 26th May
2008

Version 5. January 2008

After 2006's Highly successful Explorer Camp, Devon County Explorer Scouts and Taw Explorers are planning a weekend camp with activities. Over the weekend workshop sessions will be run on a range of subjects, as well as time to meet other Explorers.

Explorers and Young Leaders can take part in as many or as few workshops as they wish.

All Explorers are invited to attend and enjoy the week end, you don't even need your leaders.

So far we are hoping to include

- Young Leader Modules
- Archery
- Climbing on our climbing tower
- Air Rifle shooting
- First Aid
- Fire without Matches (no, not using a lighter instead!)
- Meeting area
- Tuck shop
- Explorer Scout Iron team
- Mountain Bikes
- Circus Skills

Other ideas are DofE clinic, games swap shop and a chill out zone. If there is anything else you would like to see please let me know and I will try my best to provide it

About the Campsite

Collard Bridge is the North Devon District Campsite. Taw Explorers meet here every week.

The site has seven camping areas, toilets and showers. There are also two wooden huts, a climbing tower, areas for archery and air rifle shooting and a campfire circle.
